

Candace Crowe Design Names New Sales Consultant For Company

ORLANDO, FL (2/4/09)

Candace Crowe Design (CCD) recently named Marilyn Hayes as its Sales Consultant. Hayes will be primarily responsible for promoting CCD's Revenez product line to the cosmetic surgery community. Her territory includes Texas, Arizona, California, Illinois, and Nevada, and will expand along with expected growth of the company's client base.

Candace Crowe, President and Founder of Candace Crowe Design explains, "Marilyn's presence gives us the ability to expand our exposure to cosmetic surgery practices across the United States. Her sales and management experience will prove to be a valuable resource to plastic surgeons and to our corporate partners. We are excited to have Marilyn on the CCD team."

Hayes has over 27 years of experience in the Veterinary Medicine industry, working with doctors who were unique in their ability to be compassionate and understanding of their patients. Hayes has significant experience in learning body systems, selling products, bringing in experts for special programs, planning events for doctors and staff, and public speaking, as well as related sales staff training and management, and territory development exposure. Hayes started her new position on January 12, 2009.

In keeping with the mission of Candace Crowe Design, Hayes is enthusiastic about helping patients make educated decisions about having a procedure done. Hayes says, "Revenez is a product I can stand behind because it is a positive, reassuring presentation of what plastic surgeons can do for their patients." Hayes looks forward to helping doctors and staffs realize the many benefits of the Revenez products. She will be present at the Baker Gordon Symposium in Miami on February 5-7, and at the Aesthetic Meeting in Las Vegas on May 3-7.

About Candace Crowe Design

Candace Crowe Design is an innovative, award-winning design firm solely dedicated to servicing the plastic surgery industry. With an established excellent reputation built on knowledge of the industry, the professionals at Candace Crowe Design are highly recognized in their field and sought out for their expertise in plastic surgery marketing.

CANDACE CROWE DESIGN